

Rule Changes Effective January 1st, 2010

FCA rule changes Junior and Cadet ages

The FCA Board of Directors has confirmed an amendment to the FCA Rules governing the age classes for Cadet and Junior archers in Canada.

This amendment is to make Canadian age classes consistent with FITA age classes as of 01 January 2010. This amendment is effective as of 01 January 2010 for all competitions in Canada sanctioned by the FCA and FITA.

The effective rules as amended are as follows (amendments are underlined):

4.2.3.3 To compete in a Junior class, a person must be 20 or younger on December 31 of the current year.

4.2.3.4 To compete in a Cadet class, a person must be 17 or younger on December 31 of the current year.

11.13 Age Classes

Refer to section 4.2.3 for FCA age classes

This amendment does not pertain to any tournaments sanctioned by IFAA, IBO or any other archery governing body.

Amendments will be made to the FCA website version of the rules as soon as practicable.

Please ensure that all members, particularly organizers of upcoming tournaments, are aware of these changes.